The market is open from 10.30 am – 3.30 pm.

Please note that we will be requesting that each stall make a deposit of one month's fees to secure their space. Your deposit will be held and a new invoice sent each month before each market which must be paid at least two weeks before.

Please ensure that you bring the appropriate weights for your gazebo and check weather conditions and put or take the sides on/off as appropriate. You will not be allowed to set up without the correct weights.

If you would like a particular location within the market please let us know below or any other special requests. We will do our best to accommodate but cannot guarantee this. Please note that we can't guarantee that you will have the same space each month.

We are able to utilise the Haynes Motor Museum premises licence so there is no need to apply for a TEN licence.
